JULIAN RALLY

What do you have when you assemble thirteen rigs of RV Wheelers (plus two former RVers) in a beautiful wooded park in the mountains near Julian? FUN! You have fun!

Take Me Out to the Ballgame!

The camp-out began with everyone's working together to set up tables (covered with RV-themed tablecloths) and other equipment for group meals, and fire pits for fireside chats each night.

The week's potlucks proved that RV Wheelers are great cooks as well as nice folks, and everyone ate heartily at the first-night happy hour, the two breakfasts, the "Americana" lunch featuring hot dogs with all the trimmings and Julian apple pies (à la mode, of course), and the closing night's dinner. There was something for everybody, with all diets and restrictions accommodated.

Some also availed themselves of the many fine restaurants and shops in nearby Julian, a group got to interact with wolves at the wolf rescue center nearby, and a few toured a Buddhist retreat center and learned and shared the useful saying, "Not my circus, not my monkeys."

Organized games on Americana day got everyone up and moving for bean-bag baseball and Cornhole. Even those of us with the least ability had fun trying, and our teammates were most forgiving. How Fitz kept track of the score amid the hilarity and ineptness of the participants, I can't imagine, but she did.

On that day and every day, Bonnie got people out on hikes all around the park and nearby trails. A few folks had the good fortune to spot deer and wild turkeys. Great way to work off some of that delicious food!

Many thanks to Ros and Ron, Liz and Leroy, and Melinda for organizing/hosting, and to all who helped with setting up and taking down, providing and/or transporting equipment, and being good sports about everything.

Editor's Note: Many thanks to Julie for writing this article and to all who helped make this rally a success!

Hope You Join Us on an Upcoming Rally

NEW MEMBERS

Bonnie and Mike LeLesch

While raising our 2 children we were tent campers...laughing at RVs...that's not camping!

When we retired and had time to camp longer than a week at a time...tent camping did not appear as appealing for longer trips. We bought a tiny used trailer. Mike couldn't stand all the way up in any part of it, we had to convert a table to a bed and back each day and if he sat on the toilet, he couldn't close the bathroom door! After using it for a six-week trip, we knew we wanted an RV but certainly not that trailer.

We graduated to a truck and 5th wheel and were happy campers until we started racing sports cars and couldn't pull both the 5th wheel and the trailer with the race cars.

We made the move to a motorhome and never looked back.

This year we sold our 45-foot Thor motorhome on which we logged just over 100,000 miles in about 5 1/2 years. We downsized to our current 26-foot Renegade class C. Then we downsized from our 2,600 sq ft multilevel home to our current 1,380 sq ft single level home here in Laguna Woods.

Pre covid we regularly RVed for about 4 months each summer...traveling by various routes to Acadia Park in Maine. We chose our routes depending on who we would visit and where we could hike, ride our bicycles on Rail Trails.

Life has since slowed down for us and our RV travels the last few years have been in southern California. We hope next year to adventure farther. We had a grand time at our first Wheelers rally this month (Sept '23) and are looking forward to many more.

Get Well Wishes to Frank Van Wickle

Per Joanie:

After our roller coaster one week hospital stay, Frank is doing much better at home and has had his first Chemotherapy treatment. We now start our journey of cancer care and are so grateful for all the prayers, love and support we have received. Hope to see everyone soon!

MEMBERS ON THE MOVE

Heidi and Richard Penkava are on another RV trip – this time traveling across the Country – seeing many beautiful and historic sites along the way! Thank you for sharing these photos!

Yellowstone National Park

If you've taken an RV trip lately and would care to share a few photos and a couple of paragraphs with fellow club members, please submit to Roslyn by the 20th of the month to be included in the following month's newsletter in the section entitled Members on the Move. It's clear members like reading about, and seeing photos, of your travel adventures!

And along those lines

If you enjoy reading about your fellow RV Wheelers, consider sending Roslyn a brief bio about yourself for the Meet the Members section in future newsletter issues! The "bio" will become a link on our website directory, and people will find your story interesting.
