HAPPY HOLIDAYS TO EVERYONE!

Dee is on an extended trip to warm Alaska. She will return for the February newsletter.

Don't forget our first meeting of the year on January 11 with a special topic of Rving with disabilities presented by Luanna Rugh. As we're all getting older it's important topic with some great ideas.

Our outing in January is an annual favorite, Quartzite AZ for the big show. Some of our members are boondocking and others are getting a space in a local RV park. Check the flyer in the newsletter.

RV WHEELERS

OF LAGUNA WOODS VILLAGE PRESENTS

YOU CAN STILL RV WITH PHYSICAL CHALLENGES!

Presented by LUANNA RUGH

Luanna and Len Rugh were married in February 1967. Len's being drafted during the Vietnam war and subsequently wounded caused their lives to change dramatically. Luanna and her husband Len are the authors of Promises Kept, the story of their incredible journey. Part of their journey included many years of RV travel all over North America in spite of many physical challenges.

Come hear the story of a courageous, exceptional couple who have overcome overwhelming circumstances and odds. Their story signifies the sacrifices our military men and women endure to protect our liberty, regardless of which war, conflict or campaign.

Thursday, JANUARY 11, 2018, 6:30 PM – Clubhouse 6

This event is for Laguna Woods Village residents and their guests only

CHRISTMAS IN CHULA VISTA 2018

For several years the CDRV'ers have hoisted an annual Christmas Campout. 2017 there was conflict with the Wheelers Annual Christmas Party, but Lorrie and I along with the Wilsons, Ed, and Rhonda attended – 20 rigs, lots of decorations, parade, good foods, great costumes, etc A REAL UNIQUE CHRISTMAS FOR SURE! Think about 12/5/18 departing 12/9/18 next December Wheeler Christmas on 12/15 – more information in the fall Happy New Year – Doug Gibson

QUARTZSITE AZ RALLY

Hosted by the Escapees Solos
January 17-24, 2018

---

Approximately 240 miles from Laguna Woods, this desert destination is perfect during the winter and spring and is located just 22 miles over the Arizona border. Wheeler and Escapees member Carol Preimesberger has invited us to join them for their annual outing, camping on FREE Bureau of Land Management (BLM) land.

This is the time of year when this small desert town hosts a huge “swap meet” with vendors selling a variety of merchandise scattered everywhere plus the BIG TENT open from January 20-28 with everything you can think of for your RV. If you’ve never experienced this event, it must be on your bucket list. In town, there are three good hardware stores with a good supply of RV stuff. The Gambler has new and used RV parts and appliances. In the back, they have bins and bins of miscellaneous RV parts that you can look through. Then there is K&B Tools, Quartzsite’s version of Harbor Freight.

This rally will be VERY informal – no sign ups, no money up front. While the Solos will be there all week, you don’t have to go for the entire week – come and leave whenever you choose. If “boon docking” (no hookups) is not your thing, you could choose to stay at one of the local RV parks with hookups. One that the Wheelers stayed at in 2016 was Rose RV Park. If you choose to do that, you need to make your own reservations there (or some other park) by calling them at 405-306-2309. There are plenty of other RV parks in town or nearby. Early reservations are recommended. For those boon docking, there are nearby places where you can dump (if you have to) and buy water at a reasonable price.

BUT, the fun will be out at the Plumosa BLM camp, just a few short miles off the I-10. Cross the Arizona border, go approx. 22 miles and take Exit 17 (the first of two Quartzsite exits); turn left. To I-95 north and turn left. Go to Plumosa Road and turn right. Just past mile marker 2.2 on the left side look for the big yellow happy face (Solo’s logo) and turn left; go about 100 yards and you will see the camp on the left side of the road. You’ll see lots of big yellow smiling face signs and flags. Park anywhere near the group. Then, just look for Carol Preimesberger, who will be there to welcome you.

There’s going to be lots of good fun and camaraderie. The Escapees provide coffee and breakfast every morning, a hamburger/hot dog cookout one evening, a great BBQ beef dinner one evening, “burn your own meat” one night (you bring meat and a dish to share), wine and appetizers one night, dancing to a live band one afternoon, a campfire every night, and much more. Bringing a donation of fruit or extra water for coffee would be appreciated. The food cost for those partaking will be approximately $20/person. Dinner is on your own two nights. There will be a presentation regarding RV refrigeration on Thursday afternoon that should be very educational. More information will follow.

There will also be a CARE (Continuing Assistance for Retired Escapees) auction where rally attendees are requested to bring something to auction off; i.e., RV related items, tools, books, etc. The money goes to CARE which is an Escapees nonprofit care center located in Livingston, TX which provides a safe haven with professional assistance at affordable prices for Escapees members who are not able to travel any longer because of age or health problems. It is not a nursing home. More information can be provided if you are interested.

These are members of our club. Great recommendations and service.

Soaply is new to our club and they do a great job of washing & detailing cars and RVs. You might want to give them a try as they will come to the lot. If five or more members schedule washes for the same day, each member will receive a 15% discount. Remember, you are required by the lot rules and regulations to remain there while you have any vendor there to work.
