MEMBERS ON THE MOVE

Arizona Rally – two great parks and a great time for all!

Our adventure started from Laguna Woods where 7 rigs from the Club ventured 400 miles to Apache Junction near Mesa Arizona. We then traveled 140 miles to Cottonwood, near Sedona Arizona, where 5 more rigs joined the rally. The trip spanned 14 days with various start and end dates.

Our first stop at Lost Dutchman State Park in Apache Junction brought some challenges when it came to the weather. Our first Baseball Spring Training game was to see the Dodgers. The Dodgers won the game and was highlighted by a home run by Shohei Ohtani. The group wasn't as fortunate when it came to seeing the Angels. Heavy rain caused the game to be cancelled. We salvaged the day by regrouping at Four Peaks Brewery in Tempe.

In the beautiful campground there was bird watching and trail hikes, as well as just relaxing and enjoying the surrounding scenery. The group enjoyed BBQ from a local hot spot and a St Patrick Day Pot Luck.

Five rigs then made their way from Apache Junction to Cottonwood and were joined by five other rigs from Laguna Woods. Everyone settled in on the first night and we all meet up for happy hour on day two.

Day three brought two birthday celebrations at a local brewery.

The group enjoyed a Pot Luck, off roading, hiking, as well as trips to Jerome, Sedona and Clarksdale.

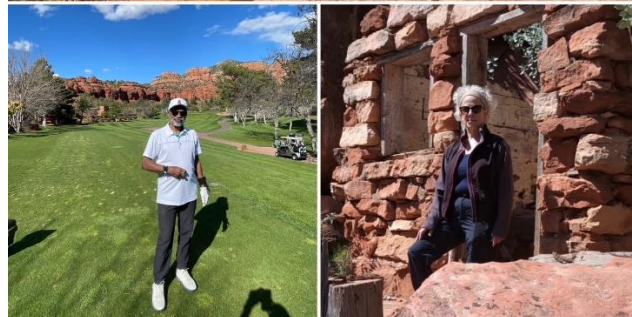

The area is surrounded by beautiful scenery, museums, history, fishing and many shopping opportunities. Local artistry was abundant and beautiful.

All in all, a good time was had by all.
Thank you to Liz and Leroy Roper for hosting this great adventure!

Let's go camping!!

For those going to Yucaipa April 14th, an email will be sent out shortly with details!

If you might be interested in going to Quartzsite in January, 2025 for the RV Show, please contact Roslyn and Ron at (818)620-5019.
