Tech Tip of the Month

Do you really need one of those little battery powered fans inside your RV refrigerator?

The short answer is yes!

Improved Temperature Distribution: Absorption refrigerators rely on heat to cool, and without circulation, pockets of cold air can form near the top fins, leaving the bottom warmer. A fan helps distribute the cold air evenly throughout the fridge.

Faster Cooling: By circulating the air, a fan can help the refrigerator reach its target temperature faster.

Reduced Food Spoilage: Consistent temperature can help maintain the freshness of stored items.

Upcoming Rallies - Go to www.rvwheelers.org for details.

Rallies are a fun way to meet your fellow Wheelers, and a great excuse to take your RV out on the open road.

Flying Flags RV Resort– Buellton—Sept 14-18

Probably one of the nicest RV parks I have ever stayed at and is located in the heart of wine country!

Mission Bay RV Resort—October 12-18

Join us for six fun filled nights near San Diego at a great location. Enjoy the specious grounds of the resort, water activities in Mission Bay, and some of the best campfires of the season!

Newport Dunes Rally is in November.

Save the date. More information coming soon.
